Bourbon Jury is Dismissed.

After deliberating from Saturday afternoon until Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, the jury summoned from Bourbon county to try Wm. Frazier, charged with rape, in the Scott Circuit Court, reported to Judge Carmack they were unable to reach an agreement and were dismissed by the court. The case had become well-known in Scott county and it was impossible to secure a jury resulting in a venire being summoned from Bourbon. It was understood that while all twelve were unanimous in their verdict of the negro's guilt, only eight would sign the death sentence. Frazier on a previous trial was sentenced to be electrocuted, and the Court of Appeals reversed the case on a technicality.

John W. Wright, Jr., Suicides.

John W. Wright, Jr., aged 31 years, committed suicide yesterday afternoon at the home of his father on the Hume and Bedford pike by blowing out his brains with a shotgun.

Wright was in town Wednesday morning, and is said to have been drinking. He made several unsuccessful attempts to secure a loan of some money. It is said he made the remark to a friend that unless he could secure money, he would kill himself.

Yesterday morning he returned to his home and was seen to enter a stable a short distance from the house about 1 o'clock. Wright had taken with him a horse blanket which he spread upon the floor and lying upon it he placed the muzzle of a double-barrel shotgun to his head and the supposition is, pulled the trigger with his left hand.

The charge took effect in the left side of his head, tearing away the top of his head. Coroner Rudolph Davis was telephoned for and visited the scene, where he held the inquest.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright, were in Martinsville, Ind., and were telegraphed immediately of their son's death.

Besides his parents, Wright is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Neoma Smith, and Miss Anna Wright, of this county, and a brother, Mr. Frank Wright, of Winchester.

The Coroner's jury returned the following verdict:

We, the jury, find the body before us to be John W. Wright, Jr., and that he came to his death by a shotgun wound, fired by his own hand.

Children's Chapter Organized.

At a recent meeting of the Richard Hawes Chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy, a children's chapter was organized which will be known as the Hamilton Guards. The chapter was organized with a membership of fourteen, and is composed of the granddaughters and grandsons of Confederate soldiers.

One of the most enjoyable events of the meeting was the recitation of Longfellow's "Psalm of Life," by little Miss Josephine Ewalt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ewalt.

The following officers were elected: Miss Laura Perry Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis, President.

Miss Martha Anderson Talbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Talbott, Vice President.

Miss Elmata Hamilton Hinton, daughter of Mr. E. T. Hinton, Recording Secretary.

Miss Mary Louise Connell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Connell, Treasurer.

RELIGIOUS.

—Baptist church will have preaching by the pastor, Rev. E. M. Lightfoot Sunday at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject, "Congealed Religion;" night, "Short Weights in Business and Long Prayers in Church." All are invited to these services.

—The Graded Union of Paris Sunday School Teachers will meet at 3 p. m. Sunday at the Christian church. Rev. Peter Ainslee, of Baltimore, will address the teachers at this meeting to which all who are interested in Sunday school work are invited.

Warrant Issued.

Wednesday night Anderson Doch engaged in a difficulty with Jim Bayless on Eighth street resulting in the former firing at the latter with a revolver. Bayless was arrested and in Police Court yesterday was fined $7.50 for disorderly conduct.

Doch made his escape and a warrant was issued for his arrest charging him with a breach of the peace, disorderly conduct, and discharging a firearm in the city limits.

The "Secret Service" of A "High-Art" Suit.

Eighty-five per cent. of the STYLE of a garment is contributed by the TAILORING—FIFTEEN per cent. comes from the DESIGNING.

FACT!

- 1—Collars hand worked, not machine-shirred.
- 2—Finer than fine hair-cloth.
- 3—Linings stand wear, because they're standard.
- 4—Linen canvas stays, cold water foreshrunk.
- 5—Keep-shape comes from hand work.
- 6—All silk stitching all through.
- 7—Buttons shanked and sewed on by hand "for keeps."
- 8—Edging silk stitched by hand.
- 9—Every tailor a "bench-bred" custom tailor.
- 10—All cutting done singly by hand.
- 11—Plaids and stripes matched by hand.
- 12—Cloth cut on full lines, no skimping or schamping.

When you buy a "High-Art" Suit here, you get clothes with the "air" and the wear that come from the finest materials procurably right through and time-taking hand tailoring all through—$18 to $32 50.

PUBLIC SALEDesirable City Property.

I will sell on the premises to the highest bidders on

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1911,

at 2 o'clock p. m., the following described property: Two modern brick cottages, one situated corner High and Thirteenth streets, Paris, Ky., the other adjoining, and each containing five rooms, hall, pantry, bath and two porches. These are new, well built houses with slate roofs and are handsomely finished, newly papered, and fitted with hot and cold water, gas, electric light and chandeliers. Lots have shade trees and concrete walks and are 33x100 feet, extending to a 9 1/2 foot alley.

These are well located and beautiful homes in a splendid neighborhood, on the interurban line and convenient to churches and schools and would readily rent for $25 per month.

At the same time I will sell a vacant building lot, situated corner Main and Thirteenth Streets, Paris, Ky. This lot is 33x106 feet to a 9 1/2 foot alley and will be sold for residential purposes only.

TERMS.—One-third cash, balance in one and two years, with notes bearing interest at 6 per cent and a lien retained until paid.

SPORTING NEWS LETTER

By C. H. ZUBER.

Cincinnati, Ohio, May 11.—You never can tell, as our old friend, Bernard Shaw, once remarked. One week ago the Reds were going like a lot of Hot-tentists who had never seen anything that more resembled a base ball than a coconut. Then came a couple of victories over the Cubs and a nice pie feast at the expense of the Pirates—and zip, the team "has at last struck its gait." Thus it goes in base ball. Muts one day and kings the next. However, in the case of the Reds, there is hope that the king thing is a permanent condition, and that henceforth will see them performing according to the terms of their contracts. There has been a noticeable increase in the intelligence manifested by the members of the team in the various departments of the game, and this, with the fact that the pitchers again are going with some degree of regularity, indicates that the day of the slump is over, and that by the time the team returns from its present Eastern trip it will be given performances the like of which have not been witnessed on the local lot in 10, these many years.

The number of "recruits" who have made good in the leagues so far this spring is exceedingly limited. Only once in a great while does one hear of a minor leaguer of last season being extolled as a "winner" in fast company. Among the few who have hit it, "Ping" Bodie, the Chicago White Sox outfielder, Joe Jackson, of the Cleveland Indians, Bobby Keefe, of the Reds, and one or two others, are the only ones who have been continuously before the public as having sure enough made good. Naturally, Cincinnati is more concerned in the performances of Bobby Keefe than of any of the others, and it may be said without fear of contradiction that he is one of the real finds of the season. His several performances on the rubber since the season opened have been such as to assure him a permanent job with the Reds, and it goes without saying that he'll improve as the season progresses. Keep your eyes on this one on the present Eastern trip and after the Reds return home.

There will be more excitement to the square inch over at the Latonia race track on Saturday, May 13, and Sunday, May 14, than that famous course ever before has witnessed. The general public now is deeply interested in anything that looks like an automobile; and the announcement that more than twenty of the leading racing cars of America, with drivers of international fame, will compete in a series of six races on each of the two days mentioned, the sport on Saturday winding up with a one-hour race, while on Sunday the piece de resistance will be a 50-mile free-for-all, in which there will be fifteen or more starters. Besides these six automobile events on each day, there will be a five-mile and a ten-mile motor cycle race on both Saturday and Sunday, bringing out the most daring riders in the Ohio Valley. Nothing but excitement is promised, and all roads running into Cincinnati will run excursions.

Just now the world looks upon Ad Wolgast as the greatest fighter of his inches in the ring. But it might have been otherwise. Less than three years ago he was a common barroom loafer, and one of his haunts was Jim Jeffries' saloon out in Los Angeles. He made himself so obnoxious that Jeffries was finally forced to order him away. However, Jim followed the youngster out, gave him some good advice, which Wolgast followed; and today he's at the top of his class. Had Jeffries merely kicked him out and let it go at that, Wolgast probably would be a nonentity today instead of a star.

The racing game dead? Not so you can notice it. Down Baltimore way they're asking for more dates for this fall than Pimlico ever before had had, while the reports from Lexington are that on Saturday more people gathered to see the runners than ever before assembled at the famous Blue Grass track. The outlook for Latonia, which opens soon, is equally bright. There will not be as many tracks in operation this year as heretofore, but those that are doing business, certainly will get the crowds.

A Father's Venegance

would have fallen on anyone who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. It's the best kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, tired feeling, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, warn of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware: Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c at Oberdorfer's.

Thanks Brother Roberts.

In the Lexington Leader's editorial notes of the Railroad Convention held here last week we are paid the following compliment:

"The Bourbon county court house is one of the handsomest we have ever seen in a town anything like the size of Paris, and would be a credit to a county of much more wealth and population. Indeed it has not been long since there were State Capitols that did not present as imposing an appearance."

(Lexington Herald)

"Argus, of the Louisville Herald, who represented that paper at the Paris convention says that the capital of Bourbon is a mighty nice place to spend the day in, but when night comes on it is best to hie away. Many of the delegates could not get accommodations and had to come to Lexington to sleep. Br'er Peters should not be so hard on the little city. It does the best it can."

It has always been our experience in Lexington that after taking a couple of meals the hotel people never left you with enough change to even take a chance on staying all night. The only cheap thing we have ever found in Lexington was a ticket to Paris.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are too Dangerous for Paris People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with the safe and reliable remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this locality.

Mrs. A. B. Renaker, Court street, Cynthia, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills positively relieved me of a severe attack of kidney disease from which I had suffered for years. I do not think it necessary to go into details concerning my case, but I can recommend this remedy, knowing that it lives up to the claims made for it. I have not had a recurrence of my former trouble and it is only with the desire to tell other kidney sufferers of a good kidney remedy that I endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.

The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a sallow cheek, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 40 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

A Sixth Sense.
An interesting discussion arose at a recent college lecture concerning the "instinct of direction" possessed so marvelously by savage races and by animals. Undoubtedly animals are aided largely by scent. In the case of humans it is different, and some of the pupils argued that the primitive man is able to find his way in the densest forest without taking note of the sun, the wind, the lay of the land or the course of the streams. Therefore it was said he must be guided by a sixth sense because none of the regular five senses could aid him. Other pupils, however, argued that the Indian found his way in places where there were no apparent guides because he knew how, because he had learned all his life how to do it, just as the writer, for instance, will write page after page of copy, spelling all the words correctly, but yet cannot if asked to spell a simple word. This is because he learned the words long ago and his spelling is purely mechanical. It is so with the Indian finding his way through the woods.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Fiction or History.
After all, fiction is not always the worst place in which to look for history. There is a story of Mr. Disraeli at the time of his extremely tumultuous youth when he had just returned from his travels in the east. As a young man, much under thirty, he met Lord Melbourne, who was then prime minister, at dinner. Lord Melbourne proceeded to discourse on the eastern question, but instead of listening to the prime minister with the respect which he ought young Disraeli said, "It seems to me that your lordship has taken your knowledge of the east from 'The Arabian Nights'." Some prime ministers I have known would have snubbed the young man severely. Lord Melbourne was not of that kind. He rubbed his hands with great cheerfulness and said to the young man, "And a devilish good place to take it from!"—Lord Rosebery in an Edinburgh Address.

Warming the Eggs.
There was once an old lady in Scotland who kept a few hens. As she lived close to the house in which a church minister lived he asked her to send him two new laid eggs every morning and he would pay her for them.

So the old lady sent her girl to the minister's house every morning with two eggs, and the minister's servant always thought the eggs were newly laid because they felt quite warm, as if they had just been taken from the hen's nest.

But one day the eggs were cold, so the servant asked: "Are the eggs fresh today, Jane?" They do not seem warm."

The simple girl looked at the maid and then said, "Oh, aye, they're quite fresh, only my mother could not get the cat to sit on them this morning, as it ran away."

Locating Icebergs.
The captain of an ocean steamer in most cases finds out when his vessel is approaching an iceberg from the men down in the engine room. That sounds queer, but it is a fact nevertheless. It appears that when a steamship enters water considerably colder than that through which it has been going its propeller runs faster. Such water usually surrounds the wreckage of icebergs for many miles. When the propeller's action therefore is accelerated without the steam power being increased word is passed up to the officer on the bridge that icebergs may be expected, and a close lookout for them is established. There are natural reasons for the propeller acting in this way, and sea captains will assert the same thing.

A Remarkable Shawl.
The empress of Russia was once presented with a shawl of a remarkable kind. It is contained in a box only a few inches square, in which it fits easily, yet when it is shaken out it is ten yards square. This notable gift was the work of some women weavers in Orenberg, southern Russia, by whom it was presented. The box containing it is of wood, with hinges, hoops and fastenings of beaten silver.

Trapped.
"I saw the cutest thing today," began Miss Passay coyly. "It was a painting of the—er—what is the name of that little god that represents matrimony?"

"Well, now," said Mr. Timmid. "you've got me."

"Oh, Mr. Timmid, this is so sudden!"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Force of Habit.
A burglar went home one night, fumbled noiselessly at the keyhole and let himself in without making a sound. He was about to creep softly upstairs when his wife appeared on the upper landing. "Dan," said she, "wot makes ye come in so quiet?" "Blame it," bellowed the burglar, "I thought I was in another house!"

The Puzzling Point.
Teacher—And did you make out a list of the nine greatest men in the history of the world, as I told you? Willie—Almost. I can't pick out the best catcher, though, to save my neck.—Puck.

A Taste of It.
Missionary—And do you know nothing whatever of religion? Cannibal—Well, we got a taste of it when the last missionary was here.—Toledo Blade.

One virtue will efface many vices; one vice will efface many virtues.—Balzac.

Season Opens in Paris Today.

"Clearing and cooler," is what the weather man handed out for the day of the opening game of base ball in Paris, between the Bourbonites and Hustlers at White Park this afternoon. With the promise of clear skies and a cooler atmosphere Paris fans will turn out in great numbers to witness the first game of the season on the local lot.

McKernan and his men will return from Maysville this morning after the series of three games ready for the tilt with the Hustlers.

Mayor J. T. Hinton, in an interview, said he hoped the merchants would close their stores at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, in compliment to the occasion, that all might have the opportunity of witnessing the opener.

The Paris High School Band that accompanied the large crowd of Paris fans to Maysville Tuesday, has been engaged for the occasion and will lead the parade and give a concert at the Park. The game will be called at 3:15 o'clock.

By the close score of 2 to 1 Maysville defeated Paris in the opening game of the season in the former city Tuesday afternoon.

The day was a half-holiday and amid pomp and ceremony Maysville presented an animated scene. From this city more than two hundred and fifty ardent fans journeyed to Maysville while all along the line the base ball special picked up enough to swell the crowd to three hundred.

The Paris High School Band accompanied the local fans. At 1:30 p. m. a parade was formed in front of the Central Hotel, and headed by the Paris band proceeded to the ball park.

Dr. W. C. Ussery, president of the Blue Grass League, made a short speech before the opening of the game and was followed by Mayor J. Wesley Lee. Manager Ed. Mackey and Umpire Ronan were each presented a bouquet of roses by their friends, after which Mayor Lee hurled the first ball across the plate.

The game was called and play began with Paris at the bat. They went out in one, two, three order, and it was plain to be seen that a great contest was on. Lamb, the first batter up for Maysville, got to first on an error and was advanced to second when Davis hit a slow grounder to McKernan, which the latter could not handle in time to catch the runner.

The lucky seventh came up with McKernan at the bat. He slammed the sphere to left for a clean drive and was advanced when Carmony was given four bad ones. Poland fanned, and when Williams stepped to the plate hopes of tying the score looked dim. The latter swung viciously and made a nice single on which McKernan scored, the batter taking second. Romine got a little bunt to the left of Shears, which the latter fumbled, and Carmony crossed the rubber with the winning run.

The Bourbonites tried hard for a tie score in their half of the ninth. McKelvy was given his fourth consecutive base on balls, went to second on Goodman's sacrifice, and reached third on Rapp's grounder, the latter dying Williams to Carmony.

Maxwell was sent in to bat for Shears and retired the side on strikes. The score:

Batteries—Paris, Shears and Mayer; Maysville, Romine and Holder. Earned run—Paris. Two base hits—Mayer, Williams, Holder. Sacrifice hits—Poland, Romine, Goodman, Holder, McKernan. Sacrifice fly—Goodman. Stolen bases—McKernan, 2. Bases on balls—off Shears 4; off Romine 7. Struck out—by Shears 10; by Romine 6. Left on bases—Paris 7; Maysville, 6. First base on errors—Maysville 4. Time—2:00. Umpire—Rowan. Attendance—3,000.

In the second game of the series with Maysville Wednesday Paris turned the tables and won by a score of 4 to 1.

For Paris Schrauder presided on the mound and held his opponents to three clean hits. Chase, who twirled for Maysville, showed poor form.

The feature of the game was the batting and baserunning of McKernan. The score:

Maysville.....0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-1
Batteries—Paris, Schrauder and Mayer; Maysville, Chase and Holder. Hits—Paris, 7; Maysville, 3. Errors—Paris, 2; Maysville, 3. Earned runs—Paris, 2. Two base hits—McKernan, Barnett. Three base hits—Davis, McKernan. First base on balls—off Schrauder, 4; off Chase, 1. Stolen bases—McKernan, Harrell. Struck out—by Schrauder, 8; by Chase, 4. Left on bases—Paris, 4; Maysville, 4. Sacrifice hit—Rapp. Double plays—McKernan, Harrell and Barnett; Williams, Woodru and Carmony. First base on errors—Paris, 2. Hit by pitcher—Maysville, 1. Time—1:45. Umpire—Ronan. Attendance, 1,200.

Under the most favorable conditions the Blue Grass League opened Tuesday with Paris at Maysville, Lexington at Frankfort and Richmond at Winchester. The day all over the circuit was ideal and the opening in each town was very auspicious.

As the result of a decision of Umpire Ronan in the last game of the series with Maysville yesterday, the game will go to protest. Maysville won in the tenth inning by a score of 8 to 7.

In the ninth inning Paris was leading by one run, the score standing 6 to 5. Maysville had a man on third and one on first. The batter hit a grounder to McKernan, who tagged the runner to second and doubled the runner at first. The man on third crossed the plate before Ronan had waived the other runners out, and which should have brought the game to a close, but the umpire allowed the run to count, tying the score.

Paris scored one run in the tenth while Maysville counted two more. During the game Harrell, the Paris short stop, was spiked by a base runner but was not seriously hurt.

Saved Many from Death.
W. L. Mock, of Mock, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. "What I always like to do," he writes, "is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, lagrippe, croup, asthma or other bronchial affection, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it. I honestly believe it's the best throat and lung medicine that's made." Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free, or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by Oberdorfer.

Old Friend—"Well, I'm pleased to have met your charming wife, Fred. You must be very jealous of her." Fred (confidentially)—"Well, I take care never to introduce her to any man that a sane woman could take a fancy to."—Stray Stories.

On the Eligible List.
"So you think that Baron Fucash is likely to propose to me?" said the beautiful heiress. "Yes," replied Mrs. Cumrox. "I think there's a probability. You see, his creditors are pressing him and he's got to propose to somebody."

Business Hydropathy.
The use of water as an anæsthetic is now declared to be old practice, even in major operations. It is understood that water has been extensively employed by operators in removing countless millions of dollars from the American people.

Starts Much Trouble.
If all people knew what neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills and end it. It's the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25c at Oberdorfer's.

One Way of Looking at It.
"I have always worked ten or fifteen hours a day," said the boastful man. "Well," replied the perverse philosopher, "it must be remarkably easy work, or you couldn't do so much of it."

No Use.
"You should have one of these bedroom telephones," said the agent. "No, thank you," replied the housewife. "Neither my husband nor I talk in our sleep."—Detroit Free Press.

Undisputed.
"A man who allows his wife to have her own way," says a Boston professor, "is a philosopher and a diplomat." Ergo, millions of married men are philosophers and diplomats.

No Chance.
"I think it's wrong for a married man to gamble." "It's worse than wrong; it's idiotic. His wife gives him fits if he loses, and confiscates the proceeds if he wins."—Tit-Bits.

Whickers.
"Although you have refused to be my wife, don't you think you could learn to love." "Well, I might. I once learned to like spinach."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Life's Limitations.
"Our present horizon is our greatest reach of sight, but unless we make our way toward it we shall never find a farther reach."

Stag Shooting in Scotland.
About 4,400 stags are killed annually on the moors of Scotland.

Word of Wise Man.
"The true university of these days is a collection of books."—Carlyle.

BLACK HAWK CORN PLANTER No. 15 VARIABLE DROP! Light Draft, Simple Construction.

Our special new feature in this planter is that we not only get an accurate number of kernels in each hill, but we get the number of kernels in each hill which the fertility of the soil is able to bring to perfect maturity.

No field was ever known to contain exact uniformity in strength of soil. It is just as unreasonable to expect the same results from thin, weak soil, in comparison with deep, rich soil, as it is to expect a child to do a man's work. This is a reasonable proposition, particularly to the scientific corn grower.

More money is being spent and greater efforts along educational lines are being made to-day than ever before in the world's history, to increase the yield of corn per acre. We contributed a very large effort to accomplish these results with our Black Hawk single kernel edge drop, and we now add to our combination the No. 15 Variable Drop, with which the drop can be changed to 2, 3 or 4 kernels in a hill without stopping the team; or can drill 7 1-2, 10 or 15 inches, 9, 12 or 17 1-2 inches, or 11, 14 or 22 inches apart, without stopping the team.

Hand Drop Attachment with each Planter, has Foot Drop also. Will plant last two rows and wind wire at same time. Come and let us show you the best planter made.

THE BAR SINISTER

By FRED L. YOUNG

Copyright by American Press Association, 1911.

We are apt to prize what we are not used to. I suppose one reason the daughters of our multimillionaires are inclined to marry foreigners with titles is that titles are not an American institution. What gives them their glamor is that they are not American.

When on a visit to England I visited the Earl of Bannerton. We were sitting one evening together drinking port wine and smoking. The walls were covered with portraits of his ancestors. "We Americans," I said, "envy you your family histories, your blood, your ancestral homes. What a fine thing it is to feel that you have pure blue blood in your veins, especially when there is no taint in it."

The earl smiled. "What would you say," he replied, "if I told you that my grandfather was a highwayman?"

"I should say you were amusing yourself."

"He was."

"A highwayman?"

"Yes. Come, I will show you his portraits and that of his wife, my grandmother."

He led me into a room used exclusively for family likenesses and stopped before two portraits, a young man and a young woman. The man must have been extremely handsome. We sat down, and he told me their story while I was looking at them as they were when the events narrated occurred.

"The young bloods of England in olden times were not as vicious in some respects as they are today. They drank pretty hard, but they were not fighting foreign enemies or engaged in cruel warfare an outlet was required for their surplus vitality. One day Sir Roger Smartleigh was driving on a road with his daughter Clarissa—the girl faced lady you see before you—when his coach was stopped. A horseman appeared at the window and demanded what he called 'alms.' He was masked, of course, but he had the manner of a courtier. Captivated by Clarissa's beauty, he swung his hat in deference to her like the hero of a sixpenny novel of the present day. Sir Roger emptied his pockets, holding out the contents, with his watch, to the highwayman.

"Never mind those," said the robber. "If the young lady will give me that bit of lace she wears about her throat I will ask no more."

"Glad to escape with so little damage," Sir Roger bade his daughter give up her lace. She obeyed like a dutiful child, handing it to the highwayman.

"I only ask it as a loan," he said, and will bring it to you in person."

"If you do," said Sir Roger, "you will be taken and hanged to the highest gibbet in England."

"That prospect will only enhance the zest of the visit," replied the man. "Besides, to see this beautiful girl once more I would be willing to dangle from a rope's end."

"The coach was driven on and the highwayman left behind."

"Several months after that Sir Roger and Lady Smartleigh gave a masked ball. The dancing was at its height when Clarissa observed a figure dressed as a Spanish toreador which seemed to her the acme of manly form. Determined to discover if possible who he was, as soon as the dance was finished she resolved to join him. When he parted from his partner he made her a bow, sweeping the floor with his hat, and she knew there was but one man in England who could make so grand a salute.

"She stood undecided, her heart beating like a kettledrum, for she knew the highwayman had come on his promised visit, and she remembered her father's threat. At the moment the highwayman turned and, seeing her, came toward her, thrusting into her hand a bit of lace. His own hand touched hers, and he felt hers tremble.

"That touch, that quiver, precipitated a love affair. The man knew she was trembling for him, and she was infatuated by the frightful risk he ran to visit her. He drew her hand through his arm and led her out on to the dimly lighted terrace.

"There was the usual melting of the woman under the warm sun of love. At first she demanded in an assumed tone of severity what right he had there, and when the rascal told her that he had come to see her and die, she threw her arms about him and begged him to flee for his life. How he could flee when she wouldn't let him go I don't know. Sir Roger had got a glimpse of the fellow when he was making his courtly bow and, having seen it before, knew his guest. He made his way through a crowd of dancers as fast as he could, but before he reached his man the latter had disappeared, for Clarissa, hearing her father roaring and swearing and crying 'Where is the villain?' opened her arms, and the robber was in the garden and over the fence like the boy of twenty-two he was.

"Clandestine meetings between the lovers followed the ball, and a secret marriage followed the meetings. The highwayman—the handsome chap was the second son of my great-grandfather—did not live with his wife for two years after their marriage, for if he had showed himself he would have got the rope. But after his elder brother died childless and he inherited the title he got a pardon and acknowledged his wife, and I am one of their descendants."

FREE REMEDY HELPS CHILDREN

Many a mother has learned of a way of avoiding sickness in her family, especially among the children, by the use of a free sample bottle of the famous laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This offer of the doctor's to send a free sample bottle has been responded to by thousands of women in all parts of America.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a truly wonderful laxative and especially adapted to the needs of babies and children because it is pleasant to taste and no child will refuse it. Then, it is mild and never gripes. It is all that a child's remedy should be, though it is a good laxative for the whole family because it is effective at all ages. It is not dynamic like salts, pills and powerful cathartics, which should not be given to children under any circumstances.

Nine times out of ten when a child complains and you don't know exactly what is the matter with it, it needs a laxative—its bowels are constipated. Syrup Pepsin will correct the trouble, tone up the child and soon it will be well again—wonderful results have been secured with Syrup Pepsin over night.

You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents or a dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size, but you are invited to make a test of it first at the doctor's expense. Send him your address today and he will send you a free sample bottle direct to your home. Then when satisfied buy it of your favorite druggist.

For the free sample address him, Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

$15 to Insure

BURLEY is a splendid specimen of the draft horse, and his get have proven to be of the very best. There is a steadily growing demand for the class of horses produced by Burley, both up on the farm and in the cities. They stand more work than the general class of horses. Burley is 7 years old, a beautiful black. He is well-formed and of the class that catches the eye. In selecting a horse to breed to, select one whose produce commands best price.

The above horses will make the season of 1911 at Wood-lawn Stock Farm

About 7 miles north of Paris on the Cynthiana pike. Money due when colt is foaled, mare transferred or bred to other stock without my consent. Lien retained on all colts until season money is paid. Care taken to prevent accidents but no responsibility assumed should any occur.

Visits His Old Comrade.

The Lexington Leader of Wednesday contained the following:
"Lieut. Joseph E. Hedges, only surviving commissioned officer of his command in the Confederate army is a guest of Capt. Edward Taylor, this city, and the two noble old soldiers are having the time of their lives, reveling in reminiscences of the days that tried men's souls in a conflict that has had no equal in the annals of war."

"Capt. Taylor and Lieut. Hedges were associated in the command of Company C, of the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge's regiment, the Ninth Kentucky, and have been close friends throughout the half century since the war."

"Lieut. Hedges was one of the attendants at Captain Taylor's marriage and is the only survivor. Lieutenant Colonel Stoner and the others having gone to their reward a number of years ago. Captain Taylor is the last but one of the captains of Colonel Breckinridge's regiment the other being Captain James F. Frazier, of Company F."

"Illness caused Lieutenant Hedges to go to the Confederate Home at Peewee Valley last October. At that time he weighed only 142. Now he turns the beam at 175. He is warm in his praises of Captain George's management of the home, and says that all the veterans are well cared for and attended."

Tom Davidson Shoots Spicer.

Thomas Davidson, who last December was tried in the Bourbon Circuit Court in connection with John Davidson, Hacker Combs and Jason Deaton, for the murder of John Abner, shot and probably fatally wounded Bummer Spicer at a railroad camp near Jackson Monday. Spicer was taken to a Lexington hospital where he lies in a critical condition with a dangerous wound in his right thigh.

Davidson, who is a Deputy Sheriff, claims that he was compelled to shoot Spicer because the latter was resisting arrest. Davidson is a cousin of Jason Deaton, who was killed a few weeks ago in this same neighborhood by Anse White. Spicer is prominently connected, being a cousin of former Congressman South Trimble and various members of the South family.

Four years ago Spicer shot and killed Jim Johnson, a nephew of the late Judge James Marcum, near the same spot where he was shot.
